ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE DOG WEEK

2017

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, assistance dogs are devoted partners, companions, helpers, aides, best friends, and family members to human partners with physical, mental, and/or emotional disabilities; and

WHEREAS, assistance dogs include guide dogs, hearing alert dogs, service dogs, and medical alert/response dogs; and

WHEREAS, people with vision loss rely on guide dogs to navigate physical obstacles; cross streets; find destinations, seating, and safe spaces; enter or exit doorways, elevators, and stairwells; and more; and

WHEREAS, hearing alert dogs notify people with hearing loss of specific sounds such as doorbells, clock timers, telephones, buzzing timers or sensors, crying babies, sirens, voices, and knocks at the door; they can also warn a human partner about smoke, fire, and emergency alarms; and

WHEREAS, service dogs assist people with disabilities in walking, balancing, dressing, transferring from place to place, retrieving and carrying items, opening doors and drawers, pushing buttons, pulling wheelchairs, and completing household chores such as laundry; and

WHEREAS, medical alert/response dogs identify and/or respond to medical conditions such as post-traumatic stress disorder, epilepsy, seizure disorders, balance issues, and chronic pain; or to oncoming medical events such as a heart attack, stroke, diabetic shock or insulin reaction, panic attack, or anxiety attack; and

WHEREAS, International Assistance Dog Week provides an opportunity to raise awareness of the countless ways in which all assistance dogs transform the lives of their human partners by mitigating disability-related limitations; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina joins participating organizations and concerned citizens in reaffirming our commitment to respect, celebrate, and recognize assistance dogs and their partners in our communities this International Assistance Dog Week and throughout the year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim August 6 – 12, 2017, as “INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE DOG WEEK” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.
