

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER

GOVERNOR

GUN VIOLENCE AWARENESS DAY

2017

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, according to the most recent report from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), over 13,400 firearm homicides and legal intervention deaths occurred in the United States in 2015; and,

WHEREAS, this same report shows the number of firearm suicides in the United States to be nearly double that of homicides for the same year; and

WHEREAS, over 2,800 of these firearm deaths were children younger than 19 years of age; and

WHEREAS, gun violence is the leading cause of death for women in instances of domestic violence in the United States each year; and

WHEREAS, 1,289 North Carolinians—an average of more than 3 per day, or approximately one every eight hours—were victims of firearm death in 2015; and

WHEREAS, for every one person killed with a firearm, approximately two more are injured; and

WHEREAS, to honor the many Americans whose lives are cut short and the countless survivors who are injured by shootings every day, a national coalition of organizations has designated June 2, 2017, as the 3rd Annual National Gun Violence Awareness Day; and

WHEREAS, this event was inspired by Hadiya Pendleton who would have celebrated her 20th birthday on this date, but was tragically shot and killed as a teenager; her friends asked their classmates to commemorate her life by wearing orange, a symbol of the value of human life, and a reference to hunters who wear orange for safety to prevent accidental shootings; and

WHEREAS, anyone can join this campaign by pledging to Wear Orange on June 2nd to help raise awareness of gun violence and honor the lives of those we have lost; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina is committed to reducing gun violence, limiting access to those who are unqualified to carry firearms, and encouraging responsible gun ownership in order to keep our communities safe;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim June 2, 2017, as “GUN VIOLENCE AWARENESS DAY” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this first day of June in the year of our Lord two thousand and seventeen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-first.
