ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

ITALIAN AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

2017

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, October is Italian American Heritage and Culture Month; and

WHEREAS, from the early explorers to the 5.5 million working class immigrants around the beginning of the twentieth century, Italian Americans have helped shape and develop our nation; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina has specific historical ties to the Italian culture including early exploration, mass immigration, and business establishment; and

WHEREAS, there are an estimated 200,000 Italian Americans residing in North Carolina; along with their focus on family, faith, strong work ethic, and love of country, they are particularly proud of their outstanding representation in industry, government, and academia in our great state; and

WHEREAS, Italian American citizens have made significant economic and cultural contributions to our state and nation in the areas of government, science and technology, arts and entertainment, literature, products and design, and food; and

WHEREAS, the Italian American segment of our constituency is happy to be here and is key in North Carolina's growth and prosperity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October, 2017, as "ITALIAN AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-first day of September in the year of our Lord two thousand and seventeen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-first.
