ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

2019

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and municipal levels; these dedicated professionals often go unrecognized as they do the work that helps to keep our nation running; and

WHEREAS, public employees have chosen to work in a profession that includes the duties and responsibilities that accompany public service; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of our state, our nation, and the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, and scientists; train conductors and astronauts; nurses and safety inspectors; laborers, computer technicians, and social workers; and countless others; these professionals work tirelessly to provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, public servants at every level support and allow for continuity that would otherwise be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

WHEREAS, throughout this week, the State of North Carolina encourages people to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of public service employees and retirees at all levels;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 5 – 11, 2019, as “PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this sixth day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-second.
