ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

AMERICAN INDIAN HERITAGE MONTH

2019

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, North Carolina's American Indian Heritage Month is an opportunity to honor and celebrate the history and heritage of the American Indian people in our state, who have lived in the geographic area of North Carolina for more than 12,000 years; and

WHEREAS, today, there are more than 122,000 North Carolinians who identify as American Indian, representing the largest American Indian population east of the Mississippi River, and the eighth largest American Indian population in the United States; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina is home to eight state-recognized Indian tribes: the Coharie, the Eastern Band of Cherokee, the Haliwa-Saponi, the Lumbee, the Meherrin, the Occaneechi Band of the Saponi Nation, the Sappony, and the Waccamaw-Siouan; and

WHEREAS, our state is also home to four Urban Indian Organizations that hold membership on the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs: the Cumberland County Association for Indian People, the Guilford Native American Association, the Metrolina Native American Association, and the Triangle Native American Society; and

WHEREAS, American Indian tribes have a rich and ongoing history of government-to-government relations with the State of North Carolina – a mutual honoring that serves to protect the sovereign rights of our tribes and promote advocacy for American Indian people; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Commission of Indian Affairs, the North Carolina Museum of History, and North Carolina's Indian Tribes and Urban Indian Organizations collaborate to develop American Indian Heritage Month celebrations each year, increasing awareness of American Indian history and related current issues; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina's 2019 American Indian Heritage Month theme, Rekindling Tribal Traditions, celebrates keeping the memory of American Indian history alive through the preservation of culture and customs in our state; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina encourages people to learn more about the rich history of American Indian culture in our state and commit to preserve American Indian heritage and traditions for generations to come;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim November, 2019, as "AMERICAN INDIAN HERITAGE MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this thirteenth day of November in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fourth.
