

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. devoted his life to advancing social justice, affirming human rights, and unifying communities; and

WHEREAS, the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. continues to inspire millions of North Carolinians and Americans to do good in their communities; and

WHEREAS, in 1994, the United States Congress designated Martin Luther King, Jr. Day as a national day of service, charging the Corporation for National and Community services with leading this effort; and

WHEREAS, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service offers an opportunity for Americans to give back to their communities and make an ongoing commitment to service throughout the year; and

WHEREAS, throughout the week of January 20, 2020, people will have the opportunity to participate in local events across North Carolina, in honor and remembrance of Dr. King; state employees, businesses, and volunteers of all ages are encouraged to create and implement community service projects, mentor youth, and support efforts to improve the lives of their fellow North Carolinians; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission was established by the General Assembly in 1993 to further the awareness and understanding of Dr. King's legacy; the Commission encourages people to commemorate the fundamental importance of freedom in our lives with a bell ringing ceremony on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, a tradition inspired by Dr. King's widow, Mrs. Coretta Scott King; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day allows us all an opportunity to recommit ourselves to those principles essential to Dr. King's message: loving our neighbors, ending poverty, creating equitable economic opportunities, and taking nonviolent, direct action against hatred, racism, and oppression of any kind; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina joins in celebrating Dr. King as an incomparable civil rights leader, and in honoring his life and legacy by promoting justice, peace, service, and community engagement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim January 20, 2020, as "DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fourth.
