

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

ELECTRICAL SAFETY MONTH

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, hundreds of people die and thousands are injured each year in the United States as a result of electrical-related incidents; and

WHEREAS, property damage resulting from home fires caused by electrical failure or malfunction amounts to more than $1.4 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, practicing basic electrical safety precautions can help prevent thousands of people from incurring electrical-related injuries each year; and

WHEREAS, the 2020 national theme for Electrical Safety Month is Smart Home, focusing on the lifesaving devices that keep a home smart, safe, and secure from electrical hazards; and

WHEREAS, people are encouraged to inspect their homes and workplaces for possible electrical hazards, and to protect their homes and families with the latest safety technology, such as ground fault circuit interrupters, arc fault circuit interrupters, and tamper resistant receptacles; and

WHEREAS, every family or individual should install, test, and properly maintain an adequate number of smoke alarms; and

WHEREAS, the Electrical Safety Foundation International (ESFI) is dedicated to promoting electrical safety in the home, school, and workplace through education, awareness, and advocacy; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina encourages people in our communities to observe the importance of establishing and practicing electrical safety habits in the home, school, and workplace to reduce the number of electrical-related fires, injuries, and deaths;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May, 2020, as “ELECTRICAL SAFETY MONTH” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.
