

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

FIRST RESPONDERS APPRECIATION MONTH

2019

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, both professionals and volunteers, including 9-1-1 dispatchers, law enforcement officers, firefighters, emergency medical services, search and rescue teams and other organizations in the public safety sector, come together as first responders to protect and aid the public in the event of an emergency; and

WHEREAS, every day, first responders risk their own safety to protect others; and

WHEREAS, first responders are our primary and best defense against all emergencies that threaten our communities; and

WHEREAS, first responders are ready to aid the people of North Carolina 24 hours a day, seven days a week; and

WHEREAS, first responders show courage and selfless concern for others as they carry out their duties; and

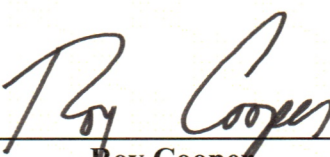

WHEREAS, first responders are highly-trained, specialized workers who contribute their excellent skills for the public good; many first responders provide this service voluntarily for no pay; and

WHEREAS, the members of first responder organizations undergo significant education and training, and make personal sacrifices to achieve the expertise required to provide aid in emergency situations; and

WHEREAS, first responders maintain safety and order in times of crisis, volunteer in our communities and schools and are a vital part of every North Carolina community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim September, 2019, as "FIRST RESPONDERS APPRECIATION MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-eighth day of August in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-third.