ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

NATIONAL PARENTS' DAY

2021

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, effective parents provide foundation, support, wisdom, and unconditional love, as well as help children build character, learn responsibility, and reach their full potential; and

WHEREAS, parents are vital to strong families and to thriving communities; and

WHEREAS, effective parenting reaches beyond the home as part of a community effort to help shape future generations; and

WHEREAS, in 1994, the United States Congress established the fourth Sunday of July as National Parents' Day to honor and recognize the vital role of parents rearing children and the importance of effective parenting; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina encourages parents to be their best for their own children, children in their care, and children throughout our communities to ensure that all have the support and encouragement they need;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 25, 2021, as "NATIONAL PARENTS' DAY" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this ninth day of July in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-one and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-sixth.
