ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

OTORHINOLARYNGOLOGY NURSES DAY

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, otorhinolaryngology (ORL) nurses specialize in caring for patients with ear, nose, or throat problems; and

WHEREAS, ORL nurses are often tasked with treating acute and chronic issues, including ear infections and allergies, however their work extends to treating genetic abnormalities and injuries; ORL nurses may also be asked to assist during surgical procedures for more severe issues; and

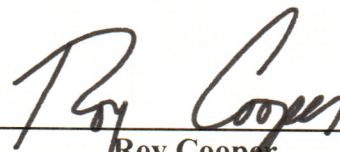

WHEREAS, the field of ORL nursing is highly specialized and it requires years of education and training to become certified; and

WHEREAS, ORL nurses are among the many nurses that have and continue to put their lives on the line to fight the spread of COVID-19, both here in North Carolina and across our nation; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina is proud to recognize the important work done by otorhinolaryngology nurses every day to improve the lives of patients and their families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 9, 2020, as “OTORHINOLARYNGOLOGY NURSES DAY” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this seventh day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fourth.
