

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

PAYROLL WEEK

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the American Payroll Association and its more than 20,000 members have launched a nationwide public awareness campaign that pays tribute to the more than 150 million people who work in the United States and the payroll professionals who support the American system by paying wages, reporting worker earnings and withholding federal employment taxes; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals in North Carolina play a key role in maintaining the economic health of our state, carrying out such diverse tasks as paying into the unemployment insurance system, providing information for child support enforcement and carrying out tax withholding, reporting and depositing; and

WHEREAS, according to the American Payroll Association, payroll departments collectively spend more than $2.4 trillion annually complying with a myriad of federal and state wage and tax laws; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals play an increasingly important role in ensuring the economic security of American families by helping to identify noncustodial parents and making sure they comply with their child support mandates; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals have become increasingly proactive in educating both the business community and the public about the payroll tax withholding systems; and

WHEREAS, payroll professionals meet regularly with federal and state tax officials to discuss both compliance improvement with government procedures and how compliance can be achieved at lesser cost to both government and businesses; and

WHEREAS, the week in which Labor Day falls has been proclaimed National Payroll Week, and the State of North Carolina joins in recognizing the efforts of the people who work in our state, as well as the payroll profession, this September and throughout the year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the first full week of September, 2020, as "PAYROLL WEEK" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.
