

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

WATERMELON MONTH

2020

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, watermelons are enjoyed by millions of consumers and are a versatile and nutritious commodity; and

WHEREAS, the industry also provides employment for many North Carolinians as well as supplemental income for rural families who farm on a part-time basis; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina is one of the top producers of watermelons in the nation, and the industry is of great importance to the state's economy; and

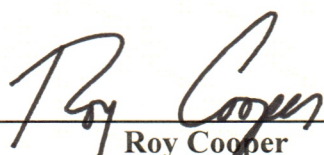

WHEREAS, the North Carolina watermelon industry generated an estimated $24 million in farm income according to the 2019 agricultural statistics from the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina grew nearly 195 million pounds of watermelons on 7,800 acres in 2019; and

WHEREAS, the watermelon industry is yet another part of the total diversification of agriculture in North Carolina;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July, 2020, as "WATERMELON MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-third day of June in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-fourth.
