ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

ASIAN AMERICAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH

2022

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, North Carolina has been home to members of the Asian American and Pacific Islander communities since the mid-19th century, as the first Chinese immigrants began to settle in the state; and

WHEREAS, the efforts and contributions of Asian American-Pacific Islanders can be seen in many aspects of society, including education, history, business, and science, playing a pivotal role in North Carolina's rich history; and

WHEREAS, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders alone account for nearly 6.4 percent of the American population; and North Carolina's population is 3.3 percent Asian and Pacific Islander and continues to increase; and

WHEREAS, throughout history, Asian American and Pacific Islanders have faced adversity and used their strength and persistence to become leaders and trailblazers, including Kamala Harris, the first person of South Asian descent to serve as Vice President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the efforts and contributions of Asian American and Pacific Islanders can be seen in every aspect of society, including education, history, politics, healthcare, economics, and science, playing a pivotal role in America's history; and

WHEREAS, in 1977, a joint resolution was passed by the U.S. Congress directing the President to issue a proclamation designating the week beginning on May 4, 1979, as Asian/Pacific American Heritage Week; and

WHEREAS, in 1992, the U.S. Congress passed a law permanently designating May of each year as Asian/Pacific American Heritage Month; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina is proud to commemorate May 2022 as Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May, 2022, as "ASIAN AMERICAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-ninth day of April in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-sixth.
