ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

COLOR THE WORLD ORANGE DAY

2021

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS), also known as Reflex Sympathetic Dystrophy (RSD) is a nerve disorder that causes chronic pain; and

WHEREAS, the symptoms of CRPS/RSD are often described as burning that is out of proportion to the severity of the initial injury which can include swelling and extreme sensitivity to touch; and

WHEREAS, while CRPS/RSD was first identified during the Civil War, it remains a poorly understood condition with no cure; and

WHEREAS, the National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke, along with other institutes of the National Institutes of Health, support research relating to CRPS/RSD; and

WHEREAS, members of the CRPS/RSD community will spread awareness in November and recognize our support teams including our doctors, nurses and physical therapists; and

WHEREAS, on November 1, 2021, members of the CRPS/RSD community will celebrate the eighth-annual Color The World Orange Day to spread awareness of this poorly understood pain disorder;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 1, 2021, as “COLOR THE WORLD ORANGE DAY” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-seventh day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-one and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-sixth.
