ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

GUARDIAN AD LITEM CHILD ADVOCATE MONTH

2022

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Guardian ad Litem Program, celebrating more than 39 years of child advocacy, has a distinguished record of public service through the work of enhancing the quality of life for abused and neglected children petitioned in dependency court; and

WHEREAS, all 100 counties in North Carolina have a Guardian ad Litem program; and

WHEREAS, all Guardian ad Litem programs recruit, screen, train, and supervise community volunteer child advocates to speak for the best interest of child served; and

WHEREAS, Guardian ad Litem volunteers come from a variety of professional, educational and personal backgrounds, and act as advocates for abused and neglected children involved in unfamiliar court and child welfare systems; and

WHEREAS, all Guardian ad Litem volunteer child advocates are paired with an attorney and supervised by the assigned local Guardian ad Litem program; the district courts also appoint Guardian ad Litem volunteer child advocates to serve as officers, helping to improve the quality of information presented to the court by acting as the court's eyes and ears in the child's life; and

WHEREAS, every child deserves a voice in court, but more than 2,069 children do not have a Guardian ad Litem volunteer; and abuse and neglect have long-term personal, economic, and social costs, hurting North Carolina's children today and in the future; and

WHEREAS, April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, an observance that reflects the purpose of Guardian ad Litem programs, which is to protect and defend children from harm and ensure that abused and neglected children are provided with the court-ordered services they need; and

WHEREAS, April is recognized annually in the United States as a time to honor the contributions of volunteers through National Volunteer Month, and more than 5,402 Guardian ad Litem child advocates donated more than 518,592 hours of service to the children in 2021;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 2022, as "GUARDIAN AD LITEM CHILD ADVOCATE MONTH" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.
