LINEWORKER APPRECIATION DAY

2025

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the second Monday of April is designated as Lineworker Appreciation Day in recognition of North Carolina's electric utility lineworkers who build, maintain, and repair the infrastructure that powers our state; and

WHEREAS, lineworkers are among the first responders during storms and other catastrophic events including Hurricane Helene last fall, they work in dangerous conditions, often far from their families, to make the scene safe for other public safety heroes; and

WHEREAS, lineworkers work with thousands of volts of electricity high atop power lines to keep electricity flowing 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, putting their lives on the line to provide power that North Carolinians can consistently rely on; and

WHEREAS, on this day, we recognize the brave men and women in the electric utility profession who combine their tireless work ethic with the knowledge necessary to provide dependable electricity to families and businesses throughout our state amidst ongoing changes to energy infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina lineworkers, part of a long-standing personal, family, and professional tradition, are devoted to service and deserve our respect and appreciation on this and all days;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 14, 2025, as "LINEWORKER APPRECIATION DAY" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

JOSH STEIN
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-sixth day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-fifth and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-ninth.
