

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

MILITARY AND VETERANS' APPRECIATION WEEK

AND

VETERANS DAY

2022

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, following the declaration of Armistice Day as a national holiday in 1926, the United States Congress officially recognized November 11 as Veterans Day in 1954; and

WHEREAS, Veterans Day honors and celebrates all of those who have served and sacrificed in the armed conflicts of the United States, as well as their families and loved ones; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina is proud to be the home of more than 1 million active-duty military service members, veterans, and their families; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina observes our storied history of supporting the United States military, a legacy stretching back to before the founding of our nation; and

WHEREAS, we show our undying respect and gratitude to service members, veterans, and their families, and celebrate their integrity, honor, and valor reflected in their service and dedication; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina residents and businesses can demonstrate their respect for veterans by participating in Operation Green Light throughout the week, to honor those whose service and sacrifice helped preserve our freedom by displaying a green light on the exterior or in a window of their home or business; and

WHEREAS, veterans continue to serve their communities through participation in groups, including the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, nonprofit and volunteer groups, communities of faith, civil service and other careers, and much more; and

WHEREAS, approximately 200,000 service members transition to civilian communities annually and they deserve our help and support during what can be a challenging time as they return to civilian life; and

WHEREAS, today and every day, we encourage all people, communities, and leaders to support and honor veterans;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 6 – 11, 2022, as “MILITARY AND VETERANS' APPRECIATION WEEK” and November 11, 2022, as “VETERANS DAY” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this fourth day of November in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-seventh.