

State of North Carolina

JOSH STEIN
GOVERNOR

NATIONAL LIMB LOSS AND LIMB DIFFERENCE AWARENESS MONTH

2025

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, according to the Amputee Coalition, there are approximately 2.1 million Americans living with limb loss/difference, and more than 28 million living at risk of amputation surgery; and

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that each year, approximately 2,250 babies in the United States are born with congenital limb difference and 600 children lose a limb to a lawn mower accident every summer; and

WHEREAS, diabetes, peripheral vascular disease, and trauma together contribute to 99 percent of cases of amputation; and

WHEREAS, studies have shown that behaviors such as diabetes management, proper wound treatment, and observing safety practices can be effective in preventing amputations; and

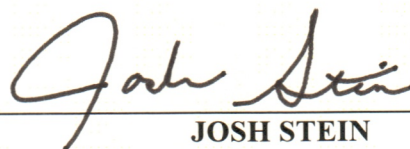

WHEREAS, access to appropriate prosthetic care is vital to enable people living with limb loss to reach their full potential, live independently, and have the best quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the Amputee Coalition provides education, support, and advocacy through its National Limb Loss Resource Center for the benefit of individuals with limb loss/difference, their families, and health care providers throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina encourages people to support and advocate for those living with limb loss and their families in our communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 2025, as “NATIONAL LIMB LOSS AND LIMB DIFFERENCE AWARENESS MONTH” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

JOSH STEIN
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this nineteenth day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-fifth and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-ninth.