

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

PROBATION, PAROLE AND COMMUNITY SUPERVISION OFFICERS' WEEK

2022

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, community corrections professionals work with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies, playing a critical role to keep our communities safe; and

WHEREAS, community corrections professionals work tirelessly to help the formerly incarcerated and those involved with the justice system lead successful lives; and

WHEREAS, community corrections professionals have recently faced many unforeseen and unprecedented work environment challenges; and

WHEREAS, everyday community corrections professionals rise to the occasion and assist those they supervise in any way they can to be successful; and

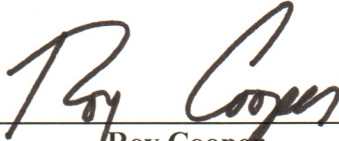

WHEREAS, community corrections professionals collaborate every day with community agencies to secure resources, support, and assistance to people on parole, post-release supervision and probation; and

WHEREAS, more than 2,000 certified probation/parole officers work for the North Carolina Department of Public Safety and supervise the approximately 76,000 justice-involved individuals across our state; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina's community corrections officers and those across the nation have made the commitment to be agents of positive change in their communities, by dedicating their time, energy, and determination to those they supervise;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 17 – 23, 2022, as "PROBATION, PAROLE AND COMMUNITY SUPERVISION OFFICERS' WEEK" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this fourteenth day of July in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-seventh.