

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

PUBLIC SERVICE WEEK

2024

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, North Carolinians are served every single day by public service employees at the federal, state, county, and municipal levels; these dedicated professionals often go unrecognized as they do the work that helps keep our state running; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including National Guardsmen, law enforcement officers, firefighters, health care professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, public servants also include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, pilots, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and many others; these professionals work tirelessly to serve the people of North Carolina with efficiency and integrity; and

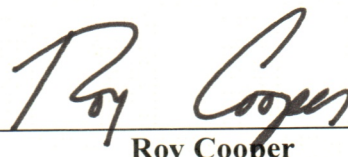

WHEREAS, the public employees of the State of North Carolina and all levels of government within our state are committed to the highest standards and are dedicated to providing excellent service to the people of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, public servants at every level support and allow for continuity that would otherwise be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes leaders and elected officials; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina recognizes the contributions of time and talent by public employees, and the importance of the service they provide;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 5 – 11, 2024, as “PUBLIC SERVICE WEEK” in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this third day of May in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-four and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-eighth.
