JOSH STEIN
GOVERNOR

HEALTH CARE QUALITY WEEK

2026

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of North Carolina are concerned with quality, cost, accessibility, and safety of health care; and

WHEREAS, improved health care outcomes result in better quality of life and decreased health care costs, both of which ultimately benefit the residents of North Carolina; and

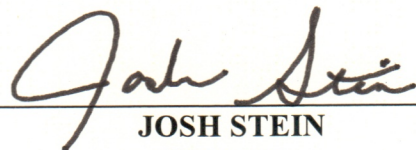

WHEREAS, health care quality professionals improve health by educating, monitoring processes and outcomes, analyzing data to facilitate improved systems, helping to integrate new evidence-based practices, maintaining high ethical standards, and leading continual improvement initiatives in the varied health care organizations providing service to the residents of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the delivery of high-quality, cost-effective, and safe health care to its people is important to the State of North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, health care quality professionals across North Carolina have demonstrated a commitment to these goals in their work throughout the health care delivery system;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 18 – 24, 2026, as “HEALTH CARE QUALITY WEEK” in North Carolina and commend its observance.

JOSH STEIN
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this fifth day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-sixth and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fifty-first.
