JOSH STEIN
GOVERNOR

NATIONAL KOREAN WAR VETERANS ARMISTICE DAY

2025

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on June 25, 1950, armed forces from North Korea crossed the 38th Parallel and invaded South Korea; and

WHEREAS, 21 countries formed a United Nations Command (UNC) forces to face the Cold War challenge; the brave men and women of this coalition, the majority of whom were Americans, fought courageously to defend people from tyranny and aggression and succeeded in defeating the invading forces; and

WHEREAS, during the Korean War, from June 25, 1950 to July 27, 1953, 2 million American men and women answered their country's call to duty; they fought in places such as Pork Chop Hill, Heartbreak Ridge, Chipyeong-ni, Pusan, and the Chosin Reservoir; and

WHEREAS, more than 36,000 Americans lost their lives, more than 103,000 were wounded, and 7,500 are still unaccounted-for from the Korean War to this day; their distinguished service reminds us of the words engraved on the Korean War Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. "Freedom Is Not Free"; and

WHEREAS, these men and women faced a formidable adversary and endured harsh conditions in upholding our nation's heritage of valor, tenacity, and honor during this important stand against authoritarian aggression; and

WHEREAS, today, as the Republic of Korea stands as a strong, democratic, and progressive nation, we thank our Korean War veterans for serving our nation and the world with courage and distinction; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina and the North Carolina Department of Military and Veterans Affairs are proud of the men and women who fought and died in the Korean War to defend democracy, liberty, and human rights here and across the world;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 27, 2025, as "NATIONAL KOREAN WAR VETERANS ARMISTICE DAY" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

JOSH STEIN
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this first day of July in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-fifth and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-ninth.
