

State of North Carolina

JOSH STEIN
GOVERNOR

NORTH CAROLINA ARCHIVES MONTH

2026

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, archival institutions are instrumental in collecting, organizing, and preserving historical materials that document the history and culture of the state of North Carolina and its people; and

WHEREAS, archival institutions provide information about and access to these materials so that people can readily study or research the significant moments and figures of North Carolina's past; and

WHEREAS, archival institutions manage records that possess legal, administrative, fiscal, and historic value; and

WHEREAS, historical information is crucial to understanding the past and to providing guidance for the future; and

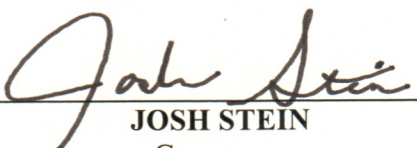

WHEREAS, archival institutions assist the people of North Carolina in preserving the resources that document their everyday lives and activities; and

WHEREAS, numerous county, municipal, academic, and historical organizations throughout North Carolina collect and preserve historical material; and

WHEREAS, the State Archives and the State Records Center of North Carolina, established in 1903, and other archive repositories in the state see the proclamation of North Carolina Archives Month as a means of promoting the appreciation and preservation of historical material within the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2026 as "NORTH CAROLINA ARCHIVES MONTH" in North Carolina and commend its observance.

JOSH STEIN
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twenty-fifth day of September in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-sixth and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fifty-first.