JOSH STEIN
GOVERNOR

REGISTERED ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SPECIALIST WEEK

2025

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, North Carolina's valuable natural resources and diverse ecosystems are integral to the well-being of our great state, and the health, prosperity, and future of our people depend on the responsible care and protection of these resources; and

WHEREAS, Registered Environmental Health Specialists in North Carolina play an essential role in safeguarding public health, ensuring safe and healthy environments, and enhancing the overall quality of life in our communities; and

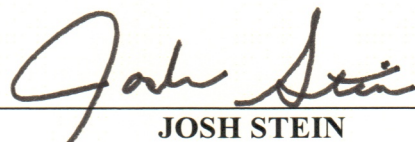

WHEREAS, Registered Environmental Health Specialists in North Carolina are dedicated to crucial work that includes food safety, decentralized wastewater management, safe drinking water, public swimming pools, childhood lead poisoning prevention, infectious disease control, and emergency preparedness and response; and

WHEREAS, World Environmental Health Day, observed on September 26, raises awareness of the biggest risks and issues in environmental health and sparks discussion on the measures people can take to protect the environment and ensure their safety from environmental threats; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina recognizes and appreciates the significant contributions of Registered Environmental Health Specialists in enhancing the health and well-being of people, families, and communities throughout our great State;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSH STEIN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 21 – 27, 2025, as "REGISTERED ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SPECIALIST WEEK" in North Carolina and commend its observance to all citizens.

JOSH STEIN
Governor
